

vintage scroll box

Extra Supplies needed:

- Glue Gun
- 120 grit sandpaper
- Magic Tape

Bless This House Scroll

1. Roll out the larger piece of kraft paper and use something like books to stop it from rolling back on itself. Make sure the shiny side is face down.
2. Give your dowel a good sand.
3. Dampen your chux cloth and stain the dowel. Let dry. If you would like a darker stain repeat and let dry.
4. Roll the paper around the dowel twice but not too tight and glue. BE SURE NOT TO GLUE TO THE DOWEL because you want to be able to remove the scroll at Christmas time to replace with your Merry & Bright Scroll.
5. Then line up your stencil, tape down with some magic tape.
6. Pop out some coal black and then stencil. Be sure not to over load your foam wedge with paint. Repeat if needed.
7. Roll up the bottom and clip into place with the 2 clips from your box.

3. Roll the paper around the dowel twice but not too tight and glue. BE SURE NOT TO GLUE TO THE DOWEL because you want to be able to remove the scroll at after Christmas time to replace with your Bless This House Scroll to use all year round.
4. Then line up your stencil, tape down with some magic tape.
5. Pop out some coal black and then stencil. Be sure not to over load your foam wedge with paint. Repeat if needed.
6. Roll up the bottom and clip into place with the 2 clips from your box.

Now it's time to hang on your wall and enjoy for years to come!

Be sure not to throw your tube out so that you can store the scroll that you're not using in it and protect it.

You did it! You made something beautiful for you!! Well done!!

Be sure to share your finished projects over on our Facebook page @raggedybits.
We'd love to see them
