Extra Supplies needed:

- 120 grit sandpaper and sanding block
- Glue gun
- Scissors or paper cutter
- Iron
- Parchment paper
- Clear Wax

Lemon Drops Cube

1. Give your wooden block a really good sand, removing any rough edges.
2. Pop out some Dixie Belle Voodoo Gel Stain – Tobacco Road and apply to each side of the block. Let dry and repeat until you get the desired stain colour you like.
3. Using your scissors or paper cutter cut out 5 squares that you would like to see on your block. Make sure that each square is a little larger than 3.5" X 3.5" so that you can sand any excess paper off.
4. Apply some Clear Coat on one square and apply your first lemon drops square to your block. Using your fingers rub gently over the design to remove any air bubbles. If you get any crinkles, wait until dry and then place your parchment paper over the square and iron. Make sure your iron is on a hot setting with NO STEAM.
5. Using your 120 grit sandpaper sand off any excess paper and distress the edges of the block to your liking.
6. Repeat until all the block sides are finished.
7. Do not seal with the top coat because it is a water base sealer it will make the printable run. You can seal with a clear wax if you wish.

Lemon Drops Interchangeable Sign

1. Give the wooden sign a really good sand with your 120 grit sandpaper.
2. Using your brush give the wooden sign 2 coats of Casement, letting each coat dry completely. If you would prefer white to be the predominant colour go on with Coal Black first.
3. Then give the wooden sign 2 coats of Coal Black letting each coat completely dry.
4. Using your sanding block distress to your liking.
5. Take the ribbon from your kit and cut each strip in half lengthways to create 2 strips of each ribbon, except for the lace.

6. Layer on top of each other to create your messy bow. Tie together with jute.
7. Cut out your larger lemon drops printable squares.
8. Position the clip in the top middle of your sign, making sure that your lemon printable fits on the wood also once clipped.
9. Glue the clip into place and the messy bow just above.
10. Clip your printable on and change out as you like.

Congratulations, you did it! You made your super cute Lemon Drops Set all ready to decorate with!! Well done!!
